

Aqua Liberty

a game changer in supported bathing systems

Product features

Aqua Liberty restores freedom to people who need support when bathing, and their carers.

It fits any user, any bath.

The receiver base is securely fixed in the bath with its integrated suction cups, yet easily removed for other bathers.

A range of our Stabilo infinitely variable vacuum posture cushions can be used to achieve precise, pressure-free stabilisation of trunk and pelvis

The bather can relax
the carer can assist without having the strain of physical support

Aqua Liberty is easy to remove and rolls up neatly to be stored away
The cushions air dries, and can be used wherever else seating stabilisation and support is required
