Everyone is different.

Everyone's need for security and support is different.

Working together with Occupational Therapists, we have designed and evolved one accessory that can be tailored to all those diverse needs.

Universal Back.

precise, perfect, safe transfer for the individual adaptable to numerous users

best value and re-use of equipment

One core unit, optimum flexibility

the central backrest is fully adjustable in height and seat depth

a clever combination of pads inset exactly where needed delivers support from head to toe:

- back
- lateral thoracic
- lateral pelvis
- foot

- variable positioning, size options for optimum flexibility as the child grows or adult's muscular strength changes.

- dynamic harnessing for complete safety during transfer

- When they no longer need it, the Universal Back and S-Max Sella can be taken back into stores, and re-issued.

- You have the peace of mind the Universal Back can adapt to the next user.

Delivering safe transfer, time and again.
Flexibility and adaptability= best value
